

COP24 – one year later

What has changed – what has to change?

What is the role of Churches
in the process of change?

9-11 DECEMBER 2019, SUPRAŚL, POLAND
AKADEMIA SUPRASKA, UL. KLASZTORNA 1

PROGRAM

MONDAY, 9TH DECEMBER

- 10.00 Welcome
- 10.15 What is the social perception of climate issues in Poland?
Possible impact on politics, civil society and Church
Krzysztof Jodłowski, Account Director Kantar Polska
- 10.45 The result of COP24 from the European point of view
Dr. Paweł Pustelnik, World Council of Churches Working Group on Climate Change
- 11.15 Group discussions
- 11.45 Plenary discussion
- 12.30 Lunch
- 14.00 Urgent time: climate protection in practice – initiatives of the civil society.
Presentation of goals, organization and distribution
The Green Cock – saving energy in churches
Olga Alpin, Germany
Global Catholic Climate Movement in Poland
Piotr Abramczyk, Chairman of the Board in Poland
Year of the Care of Creation in Evangelical Church of the Augsburg Confession in Poland
Agnieszka Godfrejów-Tarnogórska, Spokeswoman for the Lutheran Church in Poland
Puszcza Knyszyńska Landscape Park
Joanna Kurzawa, Director
- 15.00 Working groups
Discussion about initiatives of the civil society and the participation of Churches
- 17.00 World Café
- 18.30 Dinner
- 20.00 Personal exchange of experiences and ideas about protection of climate

TUESDAY, 10TH DECEMBER

- 8.30 Morning impulse
9.00 Short highlights of yesterday
9.15 Dealing with energy as a theological challenge – creating of the plan of climate protection as a task of Churches
Jobst Kraus, Bad Boll
9.45 Polish Churches on the way to the care of creation:
Global Catholic Climate Movement in Poland
Piotr Abramczyk, Chairman of the Board in Poland
Polish Ecumenical Council
Rev. Dr. Grzegorz Giemza, Director PRE
10.15 Plenary discussions
10.45 Break
11.00 Group discussion: Climate protection – what does it mean for us and how do we understand it?
12.30 Lunch
14.00 Exchange in groups – Can we find consensus in the sense of common understanding?
15.30 Moderated discussion:
Result of conference
Conclusion of the conference by the organizer
15.45 Break
17.00 Open panel and moderated plenary discussion:
Engagement of civil society (including Churches)
and its impact on society and decision-making processes:
Olga Alpin, The Green Cock (Germany)
Dr. Paweł Pustelnik, World Council of Churches Working Group on Climate Change (Poland)
Antonis Kalogerakis, Orthodox Academy of Crete (Greece)
Joanna Kurzawa, Director Puszcza Knyszyńska Landscape Park (Poland)
19.30 Dinner with guests from Supraśl and following common evening

WEDNESDAY, 11TH DECEMBER

Breakfast and departure

Conference of the project: “Strengthening of the civil society and the deliberative democracy in Central Europe. Contribution of the Church academies and organizations to the cross-border discourse of European controversies”.

The conference is financially supported by the Federal Foreign Office of Germany and The Foundation for Polish-German Cooperation.

Auswärtiges Amt

FUNDACJA WSPÓŁPRACY
POLSKO-NIEMIECKIEJ
STIFTUNG
FÜR DEUTSCH-POLNISCHE
ZUSAMMENARBEIT